Our weekly bulletin has a new look!!

Starting this week, our bulletin will have a new look. J. S. Paluch Company has agreed to print the front Cover page and the last Ad page of our bulletin in color, and supply us with paper "cost free". However, the way that they make this possible is by having local businesses advertise in our parish bulletin. As of now, they are in the process of contacting the local businesses. If you own a business or know of anyone that owns a business, and interested in having an Ad in our bulletin, please see the contact info on the last page. With around 350 bulletins between our two parishes, it would be a great way to communicate with people to support local business and at the same time it also helps our parishes.

Submitting Bulletin Announcements:

If you would like to send an announcement to the parish bulletin, you can do so through one of the options:

Email: frregie@gmail.com
stmarys9208@gmail.com

Mail: P.O. Box 36, Baileyville, KS 66404
Phone: 785-336-6464

Bulletin announcements must be submitted by Wednesday before the weekend of publication. - Fr. Reginald!

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

It's almost midsummer day! One of the great hidden treasures of our liturgical calendar occurs this week. There are only three "nativity" feasts on our calendar: for the Lord, the Blessed Mother (September 8), and the Nativity of Saint John the Baptist on June 24. Friday's date is anchored by the Annunciation (March 25), when Mary learns not only of her own child's advent, but of Elizabeth's child. We are exactly half a year away from Christmas Eve. There are strong traditions around this feast. Just as the winter solstice provides a rich vocabulary for Christmas, so does the abundance of light at midsummer inform this celebration. Just as at Christmas, a religious festival spills over into culture. As summer light reaches its peak, the sun-drenched zones of northern Europe see people staying up all night, kindling "St. John's Fires" in the long summer twilight. Bonfires seem to be the unifying force in all these celebrations, kindled along the shores of the St. Lawrence in Quebec and Montreal, with harbor illuminations in France. You may be most interested in the custom in San Juan, Puerto Rico, the Baptist's own city. People there will leap into the sea between midnight and dawn to honor John. Why not find your way to a pool, a lake, or a sandy beach this week and plunge in to recall your baptism? It's a tradition! --Rev. James Field, Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co.

Two symbol for John the Baptist

As artists have pictured John the Baptist, there are two symbols that typify him very much. One is a mouth that shouts. It is the voice crying in the wilderness, calling people to conversion. He paid dearly for it, for it will cost him his head.

Then, he is the finger pointing to the coming Messiah, and here too he paid dearly, for his own disciples deserted him to follow Jesus. Still he went ahead: the one he announced must become greater, he John, only smaller. Yes, he was a great man. "The greatest prophet," says Jesus.

The Greatest Need

The world's greatest need is not more Christians but more Christians who practice their Christianity.
