Saints Peter & Paul, Apostles

From the Pastor's Desk:

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ,

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of Sts. Peter and Paul, Apostles. When pilgrims go to Rome today they will always visit the Basilica of Saint Peter. The high altar in that Basilica is built over what is almost certainly the tomb of Peter. Another of the four major Basilicas in Rome is not so frequently visited and that is the Basilica of Saint Paul's outside the Walls, so called because it was outside the walls of the ancient city of Rome.

The two leading saints of the early Church are celebrated together in the Feast of Saints Peter and Paul, (or the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul if celebrated on a Sunday).

This Sunday's celebration particularly has a very great importance for all of us as we belong to the Roman Catholic Church with our Pope, Pope Leo XIV as the Successor of St. Peter. It was in Rome that both St. Peter and St. Paul went to minister to the people of God and proclaim the Good News of the Lord to those who had not yet believed in God and known Him, and they were both eventually martyred there in Rome. Hence, that is why both St. Peter and St. Paul are celebrated as the Patron Saints of Rome, the seat of our Pope.

As we rejoice greatly in this Solemnity of St. Peter and St. Paul, in honor of these two great saints and servants of God, let us all realize that the Lord has also been calling on each and every one of us to follow in their footsteps as well, and to do our very best in our lives so that by our commitment and good works, by our dedication and faith, our every actions, words and deeds, we will always glorify the Lord at all times and be active parts of the labors of His Church. May God be with us always, and may He strengthen us all in faith, in our love for Him, now and forevermore. Amen.

Outsmart temptation with grace in action

When temptation strikes, the first line of defense is often simple: say "no" or avoid the situation entirely. But when that's not enough, there are deeper, proven strategies that can help us respond with grace and strength.

First, think of temptation as an opportunity for holiness. God always gives us a choice, and when we say "yes" to Him and "no" to sin, He responds with even more grace. If another person is involved, pray for him or her. That small act of charity not only pleases God but disarms the enemy. As Scripture says, "Resist the devil, and he will flee from you" (James 4:7).

Second, don't just resist temptation—replace it. Trying not to think about sin often leads us right back to it. Instead, follow the advice of Philippians 4:8: focus on what is true, honorable, and good. For example, swap out gossip for words that build others up, or replace a bad habit with a holy one.

Finally, don't overlook small victories. Faithfulness in little things strengthens us for bigger battles. Telling the truth in a pressure situation, showing patience in traffic, or keeping a promise all train the soul for harder moments. "Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities" (Matthew 25:23). Grace builds on effort. Use every moment well.
